A message from Acharya Board

Mohanji provided spiritual leadership through the New Year Homa, a New Year message, and regular online talks and Q&A sessions.

The Acharya Board supported global coordination and alignment of spiritual activities in line with Mohanji's guidance.

Mohanji Acharyas worldwide conducted regular meditation, Consciousness Kriya, and wellbeing sessions across countries.

The New Year period included increased Acharya-led group practices and global chanting/prayer initiatives.

The Acharya Board ensured ongoing communication and guidance, with a continued focus on emotional, mental, and spiritual wellbeing within the global community.

With love and light,
Acharya Board

MAHESHWARI
MOHANJI ACHARYA

Aum Namah Shivaya

May we consciously use each breath of this life to serve Shiva. No, Shiva doesn't need anything from us, nor any need for us to 'serve' Him. However, this reminder or goal in life is the driving force behind all my dreams, hopes and aspirations. You see, beyond moments of physical prayer or rituals where there is a time and space for a spiritual activity as a means of service or worship, what happens every other moment, when there is no physical activity (prayer), and how can we then use every moment to serve Shiva?

Hi there, my name is Maheshwari, a name very dear to me that was given to me by Mohanji during the Kumbh Mela in 2019. My birth name, given by my parents, is Salona Surjoo. I have a degree in Drama, Media and Communications from the University of Kwa-Zulu Natal. In 2015, I started Maruti Media, a media company which is dedicated to writing and publishing. In 2012 I was selected amongst a small group of youth from around the world to attend and partake in a peace conference in Japan. I am a writer, and sometimes writers tend not to have much faith in our own abilities, and therefore choose to delay publishing due to some self-conscious ideology.

Now, going back to paragraph one, how do we use this life to the best as possible? Well one thing I can tell you is that having faith in yourself and your divine purpose, while leaving all actions to the feet of Bhagvan, is a good step forward. You see in 2014, (about 6 weeks since moving from Durban to Pretoria) I had a divine experience and calling to write a book called, Living a Purposeful Life and in 2024, a decade later I had published the second version in print and digital formats.

In 2022, I had also published the Gems from the Master, which is a compilation of inspirations or teachings I have learnt from Mohanji.

Going back to paragraph two, I have a degree in Drama and have studied extensively on the topics of speech, expression, etc. I had worked as a journalist, which requires you to be very extroverted and outspoken. The thing is, no matter how expressive I could be on the inside, there was a disconnect between my inner self and the way I would be able to express that to the outer world. Public speaking was very difficult for me, and the written word became the best option for my expression. In June 2025, Mohanji started the Weekly Talks session,s where He meets with people every single week to help them and provide guidance on various topics. I would attend every week, and while every single session is deeply transformative, one day, a major shift happened in me. I started being more and more expressive. The same words in which I would write as a means to inspire others, I was able to speak out for the same purpose.

Now, going back to paragraph three, yes, we can use this life to serve our God. Not as a means of physical worship or prayer (God does not need anything from us), but as a means for us to actually feel that oneness with God and perform purposeful actions in our daily lives. We can try to break free from limitations and anything that prohibits our ability to lead a purposeful life. We can

1. Believe in ourselves, the little soul which is a part of the ultimate ParaBrahma.
2. Perform rightful actions, while surrendering that action to the feet of God, thereby being purposeful in this life.
3. Keep on doing good work or purposeful actions that benefit others.

So this is a little part of my journey in this life. I hope it has inspired you in some way.

Love always

Aum Namah Shivaya

EKATERINA NESTOROVSKA
MOHANJI ACHARYA

Being connected to Mohanji is the biggest blessing ever! Many times i have thought that i can't imagine my life without Him. Whatever will happen i feel that i am save and protected. Also that since connecting to Mohanji i found a purpose in life.

Few weeks ago my closest coworker came up to me with a story of entity that she heard, she was worried how can people protect themselves and how scary it was. It came into my mind how blessed we are to have Mohanji with us. How powerful the presence of a Master is in our life.

Even in my dreams if i sense danger i chant His name and than continue to sleep peacefully. I get so much peace and stability because of the connection.

Before meeting Mohanji i was worrying so much about the future, not to make mistakes, miss out of things and make the wrong decisions. Now even if everything is not perfect i feel that every moment is the right moment for me. It's so magical. 😊

I can never be enough grateful for His presence in my life and for the opportunity as Acharya to spread His teachings wisdom. ❤️🙏🙏

We are soooo blessed to be on Earth at the same time as Father, walk beside Him and be able to see and speak to Him ❤️
